

PRIVACY POLICY

Spark Health Co is committed to safeguarding the privacy of our clients.

We collect your personal information to provide you with the best possible care and to communicate with you and others involved in your care. Your information is secure in our electronic system.

Spark Health Co will receive and store personal information provided directly to us, including name, phone number, address, email address, Medicare number and scan/test results. We may also collect any other information you provide whilst consulting with us.

We may use your personal information to provide you with information, updates, promotions, services and opportunities available to you. You may be contacted by phone, email, SMS or mail.

Spark Health Co uses SMS and/or email communication to remind you of your upcoming appointment.

We may disclose your personal information to employees, officers, insurers, professional advisers, agents, suppliers or subcontractors as reasonably necessary. Personal information is only supplied to a third party when it is required for the delivery of our services.

By providing us with your personal information you consent to the terms in this Privacy Policy and the types of disclosures covered.
